Ogle County Hosts 1st Reader's Choice Contest!!

We've been participating in the DeKalb County Reader's Choice Contest for years, and now Ogle County is holding a similar contest to vote for your favorite businesses in their county!

Our Rochelle clinic is participating in this inaugural contest! Many of you voted for us in June for DeKalb County; would our Rochelle fans please consider voting for us in this contest for Best Physical Therapists, Local Business, and Fitness Business?

You may vote ONCE per e-mail address and device (no need to vote daily!) now through August 31! You can vote for Northern Rehab (you'll see our logo) by clicking the "Vote" button. Once you've completed all your votes, click the "I'm Done" button to cast your votes! Feel free to share with your family and friends! We're thankful to the efforts and support of our community!
